1

Statutory Authority

"The . . . health director shall have the right of entry upon the premises of any place where entry is necessary to enforce [the health laws]. If consent for entry is not obtained, an administrative search and inspection warrant shall be obtained [unless there is an emergency]."

• G.S. 130A-17

2

The 4th Amendment

The right of the people to be secure in their persons, houses, papers, and effects, against unreasonable searches and seizures, shall not be violated, and no Warrants shall issue, but upon probable cause, supported by Oath or affirmation, and particularly describing the place to be searched, and the persons or things to be seized.

3

A "search" is any intrusion into a private location.

Searches must be reasonable.

A search with a valid warrant, supported by probable cause, is reasonable.

There are a few limited circumstances in which a search is reasonable without a warrant.

4

5

Reasonable Expectation of Privacy?

6

 Curtilage Any area directly and intimately connected with the home and in proximity to it. Generally subject to a reasonable expectation of privacy	 Open Fields Any area that is not within the curtilage is an open field. Not subject to a reasonable expectation of privacy

7

	<h3>Curtilage of a Dwelling</h3> <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • To determine whether an area, building, etc., is within the curtilage, a court will consider: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • The proximity of the area to the home • Whether the area is within an enclosure surrounding the home • The nature and use to which the area is put • Efforts taken by the resident to protect the area from observation by passers-by
--	--

8

<h3>Common Entranceways</h3> <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • "When officers go to a house by using the common entranceway . . . for a legitimate purpose . . . they are not conducting a search under the Fourth Amendment – even though they have entered the curtilage."

- 🏢
REP exists in offices and similar areas
- 🏪
No REP in a business open to the public
- ✗
Businesses don't have curtilage

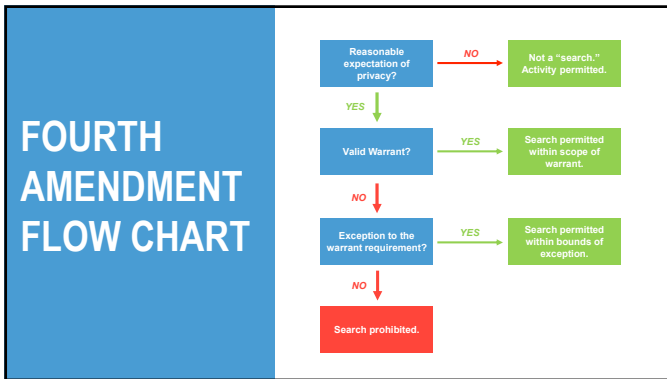

Privacy & Business Property

11

Plain View Observation

- When an item or an area "is left in open view and is observed . . . from a lawful vantage point, there has been no invasion of a legitimate expectation of privacy and thus no 'search'."

12

13

14

Who may give consent to search?

Children?
Tenants or landlords?
Housemates?
Employees?

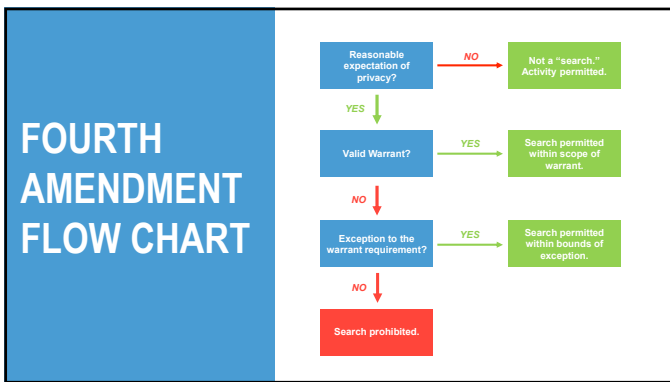

15

Consent must be voluntary.
Scope of consent search is controlled by the person giving consent.
